

Senior Privileges

Privilege	Details	Penalty
Morning: 8:35 am Departures Mon-Fri	Monday - Friday: Seniors may leave the house on their own by 8:35 am. At 8:20 am (when House Faculty are doing inspections, seniors should be at least up)	Boarding seniors late to chapel or announcements, regardless of the reason, will lose this privilege for the remainder of the year.
Room inspections	No formal room inspection, but rooms must be generally tidy on a daily basis.	If a problem develops and the room is consistently not tidy, the student must talk to Annie Bailey as a warning. If multiple warnings are needed, the morning privilege will be eliminated completely.
Study Hall: No Required Study Hall	In House - Students who choose to stay in house will abide by all rules governing study hall (no noise, yet they may shower). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Underclassmen should not be involved in any non-academic activity. -Seniors may quietly leave (or return to) the house but must tell the House Faculty. -Students may be in other houses as long as noise levels remain low (they just need to sign out and tell the house faculty of the house they are in so we are aware). -Visitations are allowed during study hall (7:30 - 9:55 pm only if house faculty is available). A reminder that visitation are a time for privacy, not sexual intimacy. On Campus - Use in-house Senior Sign-Out Sheet or Library Sign-Out Sheet to sign out: Seniors who are not in study hall must not disrupt studying anywhere on campus: not on the Quad or hanging out in parking lots. Seniors may return to their own house if they are quiet. They may use the SHAC if in pairs (for safety) if lifting weights; they just have to indicate where they are on a sign-out sheet (library or in-house sheet) Extended Campus - Use in-house Senior Sign-Out Sheet. Seniors must use the sign-out sheet to indicate their whereabouts if they are not studying in the house or in the library. Seniors must sign out on sheet posted within house (unless they have already white slipped). White Slipping - Seniors may white slip during the week with the approval of the Roamer, House Faculty or Student Life office. Advanced planning is recommended, since many people coach or are in meetings (seniors must actually converse with an adult; leaving a message or a text with no response is not sufficient!). Seniors must check in in-person immediately after returning to campus and return to the house by 10 pm. They may choose to return to the house during study hall if they are not disruptive.	Seniors abusing the privilege (including not signing out, not connecting with an adult to white slip, not checking in from a white slip in person with an adult, being disruptive during study hall, etc) will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -first offense: lose the privilege for one week* -second offense: privilege permanently revoked. *If visitation rule is broken, the first offense is to lose study hall visitation privilege for the remainder of the year and return to old rules.
11:00 PM Weekdays	Seniors are able to be in the rooms of other seniors within their house until 11:30 if they are completely quiet and completely ready for bed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -First offense: Lose privilege for a week -Second offense: Lose privilege for the remainder of the year
