2022-23 REPORT OF

Generosity & Volunteerism

TEAM GREEN,

Over the past year, I've been blessed to talk with many members of this extraordinary community, to get to know our students and staff, parents and alums, volunteers and trustees. If there's an overall impression I formed in my first year as head of school, it's that CA is a process-driven institution, and that's what leads to the impact we make in the world. CA offers a transformational education. In what can be a performative society, that is no small thing. Though we like to be humble here, from my still-fresh perspective I can tell you that a truly transformational education is rare. And it's one of CA's superpowers.

I've devoted my career to supporting students' access to life-changing independent schools. What I've found so special about CA is that our mission describes how we live it: "Honoring every individual, we challenge and expand our understanding of ourselves and the world." This is what striving for equity looks like in practice. It's also what love of learning entails: reconsidering beliefs and assumptions, being open to multiple perspectives, allowing yourself to grow and be changed. This isn't easy—it takes courage and can be uncomfortable. But when this kind of learning connects students and graduates across generations, it creates a profound capacity for envisioning and shaping a more just and sustainable world.

Community is also a CA superpower. We saw that, indisputably, in our 100th year. Hitting a milestone can feel transactional, but CA's Centennial broke the mold. From the fun of the Chapel Challenge in October to the serious wisdom our alums shared at the Centennial Celebration in June, we felt the power of this community. We also experienced it through your support of the Annual Fund, which enables every aspect of CA's daily operations, as well as the Centennial Campaign, the tool that will unlock boundless possibilities for our students.

You can't have a transformational education without a strong community. I'm humbled to serve CA at this remarkable time and deeply moved by your generosity and belief in this school. I invite each of you to lean in as co-authors of CA's next chapter.

HENRY FAIRFAX
Head of School, Dresden Endowed Chair

Concord Academy's 100th academic year was nothing short of historic.

DEAR CA SUPPORTERS,

Concord Academy's 100th academic year was nothing short of historic. As we celebrated CA's first century, we were also thrilled to welcome Henry Fairfax as the 11th head of school. In years to come, 2022-23 will surely be remembered as an inflection point for CA.

We observed the Centennial with celebrations that offered every member of the community a chance to connect, reflect, and be inspired. We heard, in the stories told by generations of graduates, how beautifully CA has held true to its mission from its earliest days while adapting to keep pace with a changing world—the Chameleon, dating back to the 1920s, was a particularly prescient choice for a mascot. We also saw firsthand that CA continues to work its magic today by encouraging bright, passionate students to show up as their whole selves, helping to shape them through a dynamic education into passionate learners, leaders, and community-builders.

Henry's ongoing listening and learning tour has both affirmed our mission and helped to crystallize ways in which CA can continue to adapt and grow into the future. We share the excitement and fresh vision that he brings to this moment. At his installation ceremony, Henry's enthusiasm and love for the CA community was evident, grounded in the love of learning and striving for equity that are pillars of our mission. We are excited to be embarking on a strategic planning process that will help set a course for the next 100 years.

CA has also made outstanding progress toward the $50 million-plus goal of the Centennial Campaign. The planned Centennial Arts Center and a strengthened endowment are essential to fulfilling this school's potential. We are in the final stretch of gathering support to make possible the bold vision we are all rallying behind.

We are honored to step into the co-presidency of the Board of Trustees, and we look forward to connecting with many of you in the upcoming year. CA is thriving thanks to the efforts and contributions of so many individuals and families. We are incredibly appreciative of and thankful for the generosity and volunteerism of our extraordinary CA community.

SUPPORTERS SHARE WHY THEY'RE PRIORITIZING CA.

Thanks to our many generous donors, Concord Academy has never been stronger or more prepared for the future. The motivations for giving are as diverse and varied as our benefactors. Some alums give to “pay back,” in an expression of gratitude for help received in the past, while others “pay forward,” thankful for the foresight of those who shaped CA with their resources and vision. Others extend their appreciation for the outstanding start CA once gave or is now giving their children. And some give because they believe in CA’s mission to empower young people to shape our collective future in a time when compassion and creativity are more needed than ever.

Whatever the motivation, each gift is personal and has a compelling tale behind it.

We feature four such CA donors who share their stories about what this remarkable school means to them, why they continue to give, and what makes them hopeful for CA’s future as we embark on our next century of teaching and learning.

CA PROVIDES THE FOUNDATION
FOR YOUNG PEOPLE TO BECOME CHANGE AGENTS.”

RACHEL LIPSON GLICK '77

Rachel retired in 2019, after a decorated medical career teaching and working at the University of Michigan Medical School. She currently lives in Ann Arbor, Mich., and is a member of the Centennial Campaign Steering Committee and CA's Board of Trustees.

Concord Academy did more to help me find myself, to make me who I am today, than any other place. I never felt the same way about my other schools—although they did much to help me grow in my career. CA was unique. That is why I feel it is important to support the school consistently, as in the Annual Fund—something I have tried to do since I graduated.

CA is special to me because I found a community of learning for learning's sake. Everything we did as students helped us grow into confident thinkers. Coursework, class discussions, projects—all helped me become a mature scholar. I entered college far better prepared than many of my classmates, because above all, CA taught me how to be a critical thinker. CA showed me how to argue my own points of view, respectfully listen to other viewpoints, and synthesize discourse. Today's climate needs more students like those of CA—people willing to understand that when individuals listen to each other, we can change the world for the better.

Concord Academy is a campus of distinctive personalities who blend respectfully for common purposes. It is all about the people—faculty advisors who are also your friends, classmates who become lifelong confidants, and peers who become future support networks. One of my dearest friends today wasn't even my friend when I was in school—rather, we met again at our 10-year reunion. This reconnection kindled a new CA friendship for us. And that demonstrates what is so special about CA: The community doesn't stop at graduation.

I think it is important for CA to continue to exist the way it is, to steward it for future generations, while also supporting its growth in areas that need renewal. CA provides the foundation for young people to become change agents and big fish in their own ponds. It helps them see a way of being, a way to move in the world with confidence. It opens up opportunities because it teaches them how to see the opportunities. Just look at the impact so many of our graduates have made on the world!

Derek is a 2017 graduate of Yale University and the CEO and founder of the healthcare-focused software company Medallion. He lives and works in San Francisco.

Concord Academy is a special place. I feel very grateful for my time there and the community that supported me during a critical period in my life. As an Asian American, I often found myself feeling like an outsider in middle school. There was a lack of diversity, varied economic backgrounds, and shared cultural experiences that sometimes felt limiting. But CA was different.

I was initially attracted to CA because it clearly valued academics, and I wanted a school where learning was celebrated. What I found was that and much more—CA is a place that values love of learning, inclusivity, and diversity. In your formative years, trying to figure out who you are and how you fit in is very important. Having the support of my CA classmates, teachers, coaches, and advisors made the difference in encouraging me to take risks and explore new experiences.

In particular, I credit much of what made my CA experience so unique to my academic advisor, Ben Stumpf '88, who encouraged my passion for computer science. Ben helped foster my interests through independent studies that allowed me to learn beyond what was available in the traditional curriculum. Years later, a few of my closest CA friends joined me to create a healthcare technology company, Medallion, based in San Francisco, that provides a platform to improve healthcare administration. We've folded lessons learned at CA into the DNA of our company, hiring people who are supportive, collaborative, hard-working, and who, above all, want to be part of a mission with purpose, just like CA.

I feel a responsibility to give back, and I have made a five-year pledge to support the Annual Fund, to help ensure that it continues to be there for the future. CA's culture focuses on what really matters: creating community and cultivating a secure space where student interests are nurtured and individuals are valued for themselves. As CA rounds the corner of its first century, I am excited to see the direction it will take in the future.

CA IS A PLACE THAT VALUES LOVE OF LEARNING, INCLUSIVITY, AND DIVERSITY.

THEMSELVES IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF
COMPLETE TRUST.

KRISTEN AND BRADLEY LEWIS P'24

Kristen and Bradley are parents of a student in CA's class of 2024 and live in Belmont, Mass. They have both built careers in education, spend time volunteering, and are members of the Campaign Steering Committee.

Concord Academy is all about relationships. Students view faculty and staff as not just teachers but also friends, and faculty and staff get to know the students as complete human beings. Our daughter sees CA faculty teaching class, advising organizations, volunteering on campus, and cheering at athletic games and artistic performances. The faculty and staff in her life see her in the classroom, on the athletic fields, in the dining hall, at weekend dances, hanging out on the quad, and generally just being a teenage girl. CA truly is about the relationships that scaffold academic and campus life, embodying what it means to be a holistic community of learners.

Students are encouraged to be partners in their education. CA empowers students to discover themselves in an atmosphere of complete trust. A great example of this is the time students spend in the Chapel, sharing their stories. Classrooms are the place to collaborate; the Chapel is the place to show people who you are. Through that vulnerability, students build a space of confidence and respect, and this provides the foundation upon which so much else is built.

We are watching with great interest the evolution of the school as CA enters its next century. The new Centennial Arts Center holds so much potential and is a very necessary enhancement to the school. Its location will better connect the east and west sides of the campus and make the entire space seem more cohesive. We decided to make a gift in support of the Centennial Arts Center not only to demonstrate our appreciation for CA and the opportunities it has given our daughter, but also to “pay it forward” so that future students can benefit from facilities that match the excellence of the faculty and programming. This investment in the arts will allow CA to continue to thrive in the competitive independent school marketplace. With endless potential, the Centennial Arts Center, we think, will be truly transformative.

Being involved with CA helps us feel more connected to our child and her experience at the school and brings us into the wider campus family. Concord Academy is the special place that it is because people who came before us saw the importance of giving their time, leadership, ideas, and money to shape and sustain it. Quality depends on all of us. Tuition can only do so much—giving is what allows CA to be remarkable. Furthermore, supporting all students creates an atmosphere for the entire community that better reflects the broader world. CA helps students prepare to launch into the real world, and investment in maintaining this special school is an endeavor in which we are proud to share.

OUR CORE VALUES OF TRUST, LOVE OF LEARNING, AND EQUITY AND INCLUSION REMAIN UNWAVERING.

This year, we witnessed the incredible impact of our values in action. Your contributions—both to the Annual Fund and to the Centennial Campaign—have allowed us to advance in ways that, ultimately, are all about students thriving.

Supporting our students so they can thrive.

Every gift to CA, whatever the designation, whatever the size, has a story behind it.

Across generations, donors with vision and purpose have supported the school we cherish today, inspired by their own stories. The chapter written by the CA community this year was made possible by today's CA champions.

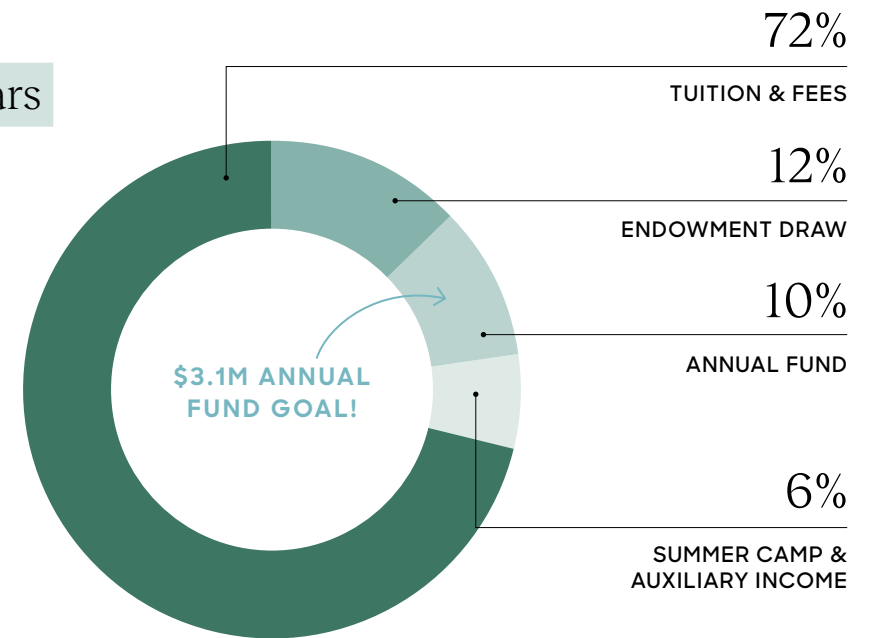

2022-23 PLANNED BUDGET

$33 Million

Where the Dollars Came From

Our revenue comes from four sources: tuition and fees, a responsible draw from our endowment, auxiliary income, and our Annual Fund.

Where the Dollars Went

Where the Dollars Went

One of the things that is great about being a small school is our ability to trace every dollar. While we must make many hard choices in any given year, we are also proud of how we deploy the resources entrusted to the school.

Generosity comes in many forms; the gifts of time and effort are hallmarks of CA's strength.

Through their service to CA, our volunteers demonstrate their own commitment to our mission and to continuous progress for the school. We are profoundly grateful for their contributions of time, knowledge, talent, experience, connection, and resources.

2022-23 Centennial Celebration Planning Committee: Faculty, Staff, and Volunteers

This group of alums, parents, faculty, and staff dedicated three years to planning CA's Centennial celebrations and making the events meaningful and inclusive for all. Their efforts culminated in an occasion unlike any other—a fitting tribute to CA's first century, our past, and our future.

Student Thankathon a Huge Success

For two days in February and three days in April and early May, CA's Alum Association student representatives hosted a Thankathon in the Trudy Room. Over 100 students took a few minutes from their day to express their appreciation to the donors who make the CA experience possible.

Reps Chiara Wanandi '24, Irene Jiang '24, Isabella Ginsburg '23, João Martins '23, Lynn Lewis '24, and Aisha Aina Tasso '23 invited their peers to thank donors to the 2022-23 CA Annual Fund. "The Thankathon embodies mutual appreciation," Irene said. "The joy is shared."

More than 100 students wrote over 300 letters of appreciation to the donors who make the CA experience possible. These are among the sentiments that students shared in their notes to CA supporters.

I have been lucky enough to go to CA for the last four years, and I think the thing that makes it so wonderful are the teachers who inculcate the space with love, compassion, and curiosity.

I'm a senior boarder at CA and, in my last year, have realized how incredibly lucky I am to go to CA, a place that values the joy in learning and has really nurtured me these last four years. It's because of you that CA continues to be such a wonderful place—thank you endlessly. I hope to become a donor someday too. You inspire me!

Your contribution has helped make CA a place I can call home.

My favorite thing about CA is the community. While I have not been at Concord Academy that long, I already feel like I am part of a family.

CA Hosts Inaugural Alums of Color Reunion

On the weekend of March 31–April 2, CA hosted more than 40 alums and 22 students for our first Alums of Color Reunion.

Alums returned to campus to reengage and learn about CA today. They shared stories about their student experiences, renewed friendships, and connected with current students.

In a panel discussion, alums and students heard from Rob Munro, assistant head for academic program and equity; Alex Holmes, co-director of community and equity; Alyse Ruiz-Selsky '05, director of studies; and John Grossman P'17 '19 '26, Board of Trustees vice president and trustee representative for community and equity. They shared their stories, concerns, and hopes for CA in its next chapter.

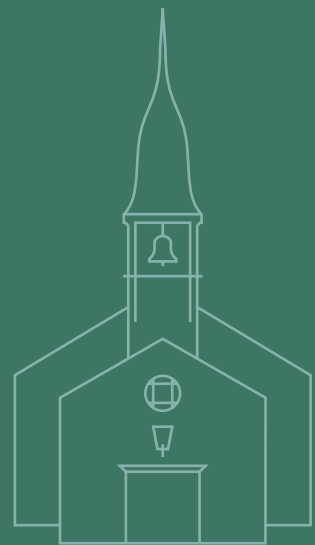

Kevin Benjamin '91 told students that if he could give his teenage self advice, it would be to value your time at CA. "Even though things can seem rough or if this isn't the place you wanted to be at the time, you'll realize what you've gained in knowledge, experience, and friendships, which will prove to be invaluable in the future," he said.

Former student president Aisha Smith '06 said that if you are invited to be a student here, you also have permission to make CA your own. "Whatever that means to you, make sure you do that," she said. "Advocate for yourself, find your people, and be someone else's people."

Building on the momentum of the weekend, CA invited feedback and reflection to help shape future opportunities and reunions. In addition, alums were invited to connect with students in a pilot mentorship program, which has more than 10 alum-student pairs in its first year. The program is designed to serve current students of color as they navigate their CA experience and life beyond.

Recognizing Our Donors

The Elizabeth B. Hall Chapel is a place that all of us—students, faculty, staff, parents, alums, and friends—know, understand, and believe in.

Our gift circles tell the story of how CA's Chapel, moved from Barnstead, N.H., and rebuilt by many hands in Concord, became the heart of our school. Every year, the Annual Fund is built once again, by the people listed on the following pages who embrace its importance as a vital cornerstone of this community.

RECOGNITION CIRCLES AND SOCIETIES

Storytellers Society

5+ YEARS OF CONSECUTIVE GIVING

We gather in the Chapel, CA's "house of stories," to share and to listen.

Members of the Storytellers Society have made gifts to the Annual Fund for five or more consecutive years, helping CA continue its own story.

Movers

$1-$1,921

The first step in bringing the Chapel to CA was moving it, board by board and beam by beam, from Barnstead, N.H., to Concord, Mass.

Members of our Movers Circle make important gifts that move CA forward together.

Framers

$1,922-$4,999

After the Chapel was relocated to CA, it had to be rebuilt.

Much like the Chapel's original builders, the members of our Framers Circle construct a framework for success for CA.

Carvers

$5,000-$9,999

Once CA began using the Chapel in May 1957, 20 students, under the tutelage of teacher Molly Gregory, began creating the carvings we know so well.

Through their generosity, our Carvers transform the Annual Fund with gifts that allow students to create their own unique CA journeys.

Steeple Raisers

$10,000-$24,999

In October 1961, the steeple was added to the Chapel to honor all whose memory lives on at Concord Academy.

Our Steeple Raisers are leadership donors and difference-makers. Their combined support significantly changes the composition of the Annual Fund, just as the steeple reshaped CA's Chapel.

Bell Ringers

$25,000-$49,999

The bell was installed in the Chapel in 1962, completing the six-year building project. Ringing across campus, it reminds us of all it takes to make CA the special community it is.

Our Bell Ringers' gifts to the Annual Fund sound their support for the school—a peal that all can hear.

Lamplighters

$50,000+

A single lantern above the Chapel's doorway guides students, faculty, staff, parents, alums, and friends of CA inside.

Our Lamplighters are our guides, our visionaries, and our believers. Their support for the Annual Fund illuminates the way for us all.

Senior Steps

2008-2012: $500+ 2013-2017: $250+ 2018-2022: $100+

The Senior Steps, across the Academy Garden from the Chapel, have long been a place for transition and reflection.

Young alums in our Senior Steps Circle demonstrate their belief in the value of a CA education and inspire a new generation of support for CA.

Heartwood Society

PLANNED GIVING

In June 1957, the carving of 1 Corinthians, verses 1 through 8, was installed in the Chapel. Over the course of a year, students chiseled each letter in pine heartwood, taken from the dense inner core of the tree. Strong and particularly impervious, this material ensured that these words would remain a fixture at CA.

Our Heartwood Society members have named Concord Academy in their estate plans or made planned gifts or bequests to the school, preserving their belief in CA's mission and extending their support into the school's next century.

Storytellers Society

We gather in the Chapel, CA's "house of stories," to share and to listen.

Members of the Storytellers Society have made gifts to the Annual Fund for five or more consecutive years, helping CA continue its own story.

Their names are set in bold green type throughout the following pages.

This means every single one of you!

THANK YOU

20+ Years of Consecutive Giving

Demonstrating exceptional commitment to CA, these devoted supporters have given to the CA Annual Fund for 20 or more consecutive years. We are eternally grateful for your faith and confidence in CA. You make the extraordinary possible!

Heartwood Society

PLANNED GIVING

In June 1957, the carving of 1 Corinthians, verses 1 through 8, was installed in the Elizabeth B. Hall Chapel. Over the course of a year, students chiseled each letter in pine heartwood, taken from the dense inner core of the tree. Strong and particularly impervious, this material ensured that these words would remain a fixture at CA.

THE CONCORD ACADEMY CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN

CA's Centennial Campaign underscores our belief that we can transform lives. By nurturing the young change-makers of the future, we are investing in their tremendous potential to become agents of good.

Concord Academy's Centennial Campaign represents the school's abiding commitment to students and faculty. We know that investments today will reap vast rewards in the future. It is a commitment that we embrace with joy and enthusiasm.

As we view the campaign's finish line, we celebrate each gift as it brings us one step closer to creating a transformative experience for our students, faculty, and community.

With a two-pronged focus on growing CA's endowment and building the Centennial Arts Center, gifts to the campaign help deliver the educational promise we make to every student. Generous gifts made in 2022-23 have positioned the school for a successful capstone year. As a result, site preparations began over the summer to start construction of the Centennial Arts Center, and we are moving closer to our vision of a future in which our principles of inclusion and sustainability fuel our campus. Endowment is the key that unlocks a multitude of possibilities for CA's next century.

We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to the Concord Academy Centennial Campaign's steering committee and trustees, who have lent their passion, energy, and experience to all facets of the effort. These leadership volunteers provide counsel and guidance, focus our fundraising efforts, serve as the school's ambassadors, and act as CA's cheerleaders through personal outreach and testimony. For all of this, and so much more, CA is deeply grateful.

Endowment gifts pay dividends across generations.

CA's endowment is an investment in the future that also provides stability for the school today. Every gift to the endowment amplifies our ability to fulfill the commitment to our students, today and for years to come. CA's endowment benefits everyone in a myriad of ways, by supporting students, sustaining our campus, inspiring faculty innovation, and giving us the means to dream boldly as we shape our future.

ENDOWMENT GROWTH 1954-2023

CA's endowment was established in 1954 with a single $50,000 gift from a visionary donor who understood the importance this school would have for future generations. The proof of this sound investment is demonstrated by hundreds of CA graduates who are now creators of positive change in the world.

ENDOWMENT PER STUDENT

A strong endowment ensures that CA delivers on the educational promise we make to every student. For the 2022-23 academic year, financial aid packages averaging $47,836 each enabled 105 students to attend CA. This is a significant expense for a school of our size—and is fundamental to our educational mission. Growing our endowment will allow us to extend our commitment and create more opportunities for talented young people from all backgrounds.

Named Endowed Funds

A named endowed fund is a gift established in perpetuity, with a portion of annual investment earnings used to provide support for a particular purpose agreed upon by the donor and the school. These funds support all areas of school life, including faculty, curriculum development, maintenance of the school's historic campus, and our financial aid program. Concord Academy is grateful for these funds, which ensure long-term financial stability and represent lasting tributes to faculty, staff, alums, parents, and friends.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONFIDENCE IN CA.

The 2022-23 academic year was marked by transition and transformation as we celebrated our Centennial. Looking ahead to our second century, we offer this community our immense gratitude, and we thank you for your trust and support as volunteers, donors, and ambassadors. We also share our excitement as we prepare for strategic planning, complete the final stretch of the Centennial Campaign, and anticipate the spring 2025 opening of the Centennial Arts Center.

You make this—and all the great things to come at CA—possible.
